Travel Adventures

Smoky Mountains & Pigeon Forge, TN Thurs. Sept 16 – Friday Sept. 17

September is a perfect time to join us for this two day getaway to visit the Smoky Mountains of Eastern Tennessee. After checking into the lovely Fairfield Inn, we are off to be entertained by the Smith Family in their Dinner Theater. Voted the “Best Show” and “Best Entertainer” for the past five years, the Smith Family is all about sharing with the audience their love of life below the Mason Dixon line. It’s like pulling up a chair, easing back and taking a ride along the path of country, 50’s and 60’s rock and roll, bluegrass and heartfelt Southern Gospel music. After resting comfortably and enjoying breakfast we will visit The Old Mill along the banks of The Little Pigeon River. In the early 1800’s this water-powered gristmill became one of the main hubs of activity in this small mountain community. The mill faithfully produced the meals and flours that were crucial for the day-to-day existence of the Smokies’ early settlers. Today, the Old Mill is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Next stop is The Apple Barn Cider Mill. This working apple farm with a general store, winery and restaurants is our lunch destination. Trip price includes hotel, dinner theater, lunch at the Apple Barn and bus expenses. Bus leaves at 8:30 a.m. and returns about 7:30 p.m.

Historic Blowing Rock, NC and the Blue Ridge Parkway Thursday, October 7

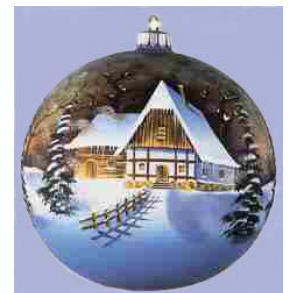

On a beautiful fall day, we’re off to bask in the beauty of the Blue Ridge Parkway. Our first stop is quaint Blowing Rock which sits astride the Eastern Continental Divide at a cool 4,000 foot elevation. Artsy Blowing Rock is filled with shops, art galleries and boutiques as well as the park for those seeking some fresh mountain air. Lunch is a destination in itself at The Inn at Ragged Gardens. This early 1900’s manor offers an enchanting hideaway in the heart of the historic village. Fall foliage should be at its peak as we travel on the picturesque Blue Ridge Parkway. The concept for the construction of the parkway began during Franklin D. Roosevelt’s administration in the 1930’s. The final leg of the parkway, Linn Cove Viaduct, is an engineering marvel that skirts the rugged perimeter of Grandfather Mountain. We will drive across the Viaduct enjoying panoramas from every side and visit the Visitor’s Center. Our leisurely drive on the Parkway continues on to Moses Cone Manor. Moses and Bertha Cone built their home at the turn of the 20th century. Here, visitors can enjoy a marriage of spectacular views, Georgian Revival architecture and stunning handmade crafts from Southern Appalachian crafts people. This special trip celebrates our very own North Carolina mountains. Depart Charlotte 8:30 a.m. and return about 6:00 p.m.
